The 2nd Twin2Go newsletter

Twin2Go's second issue of its newsletter "Synthesising research for adaptive water governance" was distributed in month thirteen of the project. Individuals can subscribe to the newsletter from newsletter@twin2go.eu or download the PDF version from the project's website at <http://www.twin2go.uos.de/downloads/37-newsletters>. The newsletter was sent out to the project partners, to the members of related twinning projects, to related initiatives, and to all individuals who subscribed to the newsletter.

The four-page newsletter includes the following categories:

- Introduction
 - This second issue begins with an overview of the Twin2Go methodological framework, in large consisting of a questionnaire to examine water governance
- News
 - This section describes the six Case Study Review Workshops, that took place worldwide between March-June 2010
 - A map showing the locations of the case study basis reviewed is included
- Upcoming activities
 - Information about the Synthesis Workshop coming up on 1-3 September 2010
 - Information about the upcoming Regional Best Practice Workshops, October-December 2010
- Related initiatives
 - A brief segment on I-Five, the research project on Innovative Instruments and Institutions for Integrated Water Resources Management
 - A report on the pilot projects programme launched at the UNECE Workshop on water and adaptation in transboundary basins
 - An announcement of the NeWater publication "The Adaptive Water Resource Management Handbook", published by Earthscan
- Project contact information

Periodic newsletters will be published every 6 months and will keep subscribers updated about Twin2Go's progress and related news.

The 2nd Twin2Go newsletter is attached to this report.
